

The Greek language and the position of the Cypriot Greek dialect in the Greek Cypriot community of the United Kingdom

Sunday 11 June 2017

Cypriot Community Centre (Earlham Grove, Wood Green, London N22 6HJ)
Lecture Room 1

10:30	Registration and coffee
11:00	Welcome by Mrs Maria Papalouca, Educational Counsellor of the High Commission of the Republic of Cyprus, School Inspector – Head of Cyprus Educational Mission Professor Terry Lamb, University of Westminster Addresses by His Excellency Mr Euripides L. Evriviades, High Commissioner for the Republic of Cyprus to the United Kingdom His Eminence The Archbishop Gregorios of Thyateira and Great Britain
11:15	The linguistic profile of the Greek Cypriot parikia of London: repertoires, uses and attitudes Dr Petros Karatsareas, University of Westminster
11:30	The Cypriot Greek dialect and supplementary education (in Greek) Mrs Maria Papalouca, Educational Counsellor of the High Commission of the Republic of Cyprus, School Inspector – Head of Cyprus Educational Mission
11:45	Performing 'language': the use of Cypriot Greek and Standard Modern Greek in Greek Cypriot classrooms Dr Elena Ioannidou, University of Cyprus

12:00	What can pedagogies of translanguaging teach us about the relationship between language and dialect? Dr Stavroula Tsiplakou, Open University of Cyprus
12:15	Q&A
12:30	Break – light lunch provided
13:00	Bridging languages, cultures and communities: the linguistic, cultural, social and economic significance of complementary schools in London Dr Vally Lytra, Goldsmiths University of London
13:15	Creating space for the Cypriot vernacular: the use of the Greek Cypriot dialect in a supplementary school in London (in Greek) Ms Maria Charalambous, Teacher
13:30	The contribution of the Cypriot dialect to the teaching of the Greek language in London’s supplementary schools (in Greek) Dr Katerina Papakonstantinou, Teacher
13:45	The use of the Greek Cypriot dialect by second- and third-generation children (in Greek) Mrs Eirini Kadis, Parent
14:00	Round table discussion
15:00	End of symposium