WHAT OUR STUDENTS SAY

"My Polylang module is the best language course I have ever taken."

"The material and the teaching were challenging and motivating. I also received constructive feedback and help when I needed it."

"I loved the lessons. It felt like being in a foreign country for two hours a week."

"The tasks were fun and gave a lot of practice."

"Polylang helped my career prospects and opportunities hugely. After graduation I found a job abroad and used my language skills everyday."

"When I met the father of my Japanese girlfriend for the first time, I was apparently so culturally aware, that he thought I was half-Japanese. Thanks Polylang."

HOW TO CONTACT US

For further information on the programme, please visit westminster.ac.uk/polylang
If you have a specific question, you can email the Polylang team at polylang@westminster.ac.uk

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

All undergraduate students should read the information on Polylang credit regulations carefully. Even if your course structure doesn't allow you to choose Polylang, you may be able to take a language module. However, you will need to pay an additional fee. For details, see our website.
All postgraduate students should be aware that they need to pay an additional module fee to take a Polylang module. For details, see the website.

If you require any further clarification or academic advice please email polylang@westminster.ac.uk

westminster.ac.uk/polylang

WESTMINSTER
PROFESSIONAL
LANGUAGE CENTRE

MAKE YOURSELF
MORE EMPLOYABLE
THINK LANGUAGES
THINK GRADUATE SKILLS

THINK POLYLANG
GIVE YOUR DEGREE THE EDGE

UNIVERSITY OF
WESTMINSTER▦

POLYLANG – THE UNIVERSITY'S OPEN LANGUAGE PROGRAMME

Polylang offers you the opportunity to study a foreign language at the University of Westminster as part of your course. You can study the following languages as an elective:

- Arabic
- Chinese
- French
- German
- Italian
- Japanese
- Russian
- Spanish

You can start a new language as a complete beginner or you can continue with a language you already have some knowledge of.

All languages are graded at five levels, from beginners to advanced. However, we might not be able to offer all languages at all levels. For further information on the classes running, please visit westminster.ac.uk/polylang

ABOUT POLYLANG

Polylang was established at the University of Westminster in 1991. Currently, there are more than 1,100 students taking one of our language modules, making it one of the largest and most established language programmes of its kind in the UK.

WHY STUDY A FOREIGN LANGUAGE?

Studying a foreign language will benefit you personally, professionally and financially:

- you will gain insights into other cultures and enhance your communication skills
- speaking a foreign language will make you more employable
- more than 85% of graduates who took Polylang found professional employment (DHLE survey)
- research shows that speakers of foreign languages have a higher earning potential.

HOW THE MODULES WORK

As an undergraduate student, you can join Polylang without any additional cost whenever your host course allows you to take an elective module:

- all modules carry credits and can potentially count towards your degree classification
- most languages and grades are offered at different times on different days to maximise the chances of fitting with your timetable
- teaching takes place in an atmosphere that is enjoyable and interactive
- online learning materials support your learning and help you make rapid progress.

As a postgraduate student, you should be aware that Polylang modules cannot contribute to a postgraduate award.

REGISTRATION

If you wish to join one of these modules, you need to register in person at one of our registration sessions.

A member of Polylang's academic staff will help you with your choice.

Please note that Polylang modules start later than other teaching in the University.

Please visit our website for details of dates, times and locations of the registration sessions: westminster.ac.uk/polylang