

A1/B1. Academic Success at Westminster: Maximise Your Potential

Want to achieve higher marks, feel more confident and make the most of your degree? Westminster's Academic English modules are open to all undergraduate and postgraduate students and will help you develop your academic writing, spoken communication and critical GenAI literacies, giving you the confidence to meet the expectations of UK higher education and succeed throughout your studies.

A2/B2. Academic Skills to Succeed at Westminster

Start your studies at Westminster with confidence! This session introduces the essential academic skills you'll need to succeed including strategies for independent learning, effective reading, academic writing and critical thinking. You'll also discover the Learning Development support and resources available throughout your time at the University to help you make the most of your studies.

A3/B3. Playing Sport and how you can get involved

Attend this session if you are interested to find out more about sport at Westminster. Current students will explain how to get involved, what opportunities are available, and how it has improved their experience at Westminster and more.

A4/B4. Do More, Spend Less: London Culture on a Student Budget

This session will give you lots of tips and ideas to make the most out everything that London has to offer without breaking the bank. We'll be looking at the cheapest ways to enjoy London's culture, entertainment and food with lots of free ideas too!

A5/B5. Travel Clinic: Top Tips and advice for group and independent student travel around the UK and Beyond

Living in London means Europe is basically on your doorstep but knowing how to actually make the most of that takes a bit of insider knowledge.

The Travel Better clinic by SomewhereNew, University of Westminster's trusted travel partner, is a workshop packed with the tips we wish someone had told us first: how to navigate the tube, the best apps for getting around and how to travel across Europe on a budget. You can also hear about university social trips to Paris or Amsterdam. Whether you're already planning your first trip or just figuring out where to start, come along - you'll leave with a lot more ideas than you arrived with.

A6/B6. Finding Work & Employability

What you can expect:

-  Discover how to find part-time opportunities in the UK while you study
-  Boost your employability by identifying your skills early; discover all of our career support and the brand-new ZONE 29 to help you build a strong professional profile during your time at Westminster
-  Get to know the career events and graduate job deadlines you won't want to miss in your first term!
-  Sign up to one of the largest recruitment platforms for international students in person and ask a current international student about their experiences of developing a career in the UK
-  Kick-start your career journey with us!

A7/B7. Meet Your Library, Build Your Guide: A creative session to collate and curate

Students are invited to create their own guide to services, support, resources and much, much more in this actively creative, hands on session.

This session will outline some of the different resources and services available, represented by printed material, QR codes of website pages, flyers etc. Students can choose what they'd like to add to their guides, any annotations, notes, reminders.

Key Takeaways:

- By the end of the session, participants should come out with a self-curated 5-10 page guide. A basis for where they can actively and independently develop and shape their support/learning.
- What to expect: stickers, scissors, pens, washi tape, chat. reflection, creativity!
