Fiction After 1950

Module Code: 6ELIT004W

Level 6

Semester 2

Location: Regent

UK Credit Value: 20

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10

The module considers the novel in English after 1945 through an investigation of ideas of temporality. Both the legacy of modernism and the events of the Second World War put under strain ideas about the relationship between past, present and future and the module will focus on both the conceptual debates provoked by this through the period and on the effects of these debates on the shape and form of the novel. In exploring these issues, the module will focus on those novels that have most clearly experimented with formal conventions in their responses to them.

Intercultural Communication: An Introduction

Module Code: 4LANS004W

Level 4

Semester 2

Location: Regent

UK Credit Value: 20

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10

This module provides an introduction to Intercultural Communication. It draws on theory from a range of disciplines to help students better understand the complexities of communicating with people from other cultures. Students will be helped, using intercultural theorists, to become more aware of how culture influences them and others, and to reflect on how it affects the ways they communicate and act. It then aims to develop students' ability to cope with these complexities.

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10

Pre-requisite: Arabic, Chinese, French or Spanish. A testing session will be available upon arrival.

Students will be required to attend a testing session upon arrival to confirm eligibility.

This blended module – involving a blend of lectures, workshops and online student-to-student collaboration – introduces professional language transposition skills relevant to the communication of current affairs in an increasingly globalised and digitised world. Students take ownership of their learning, choosing the topics studied and how to manage the synchronous online sessions. The international collaborations develop interpersonal and organisational skills, as well as interlingual, intermodal and intercultural competences. The module prepares students for the year abroad and, for those not going overseas, enables language practice in authentic, professionalised situations.

Complex Narratives: Representation, Meaning and Identity

Module Code: 5LANS006W

Level 5

Semester 2

Location: Regent

UK Credit Value: 20

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10

The module examines the relationship between representation and the production of meaning through the analysis of a wide range of contemporary socio-cultural topics, including gender, ethnicity and language, through different media. In this module students are encouraged to challenge and develop an understanding of the critical links between representation, meaning and identity in a global frame. The analysis focuses primarily on the representation of cultural difference and 'othering' in the public space and aims to answer a fundamental question: How can textual and visual media help to develop an understanding of cultural diversity, cultural difference and help advance intercultural awareness? Examples are drawn from a wide array of media and cultural narratives, including: advertising, literature, film and the internet.

Assessment: Essay (40%), Essay (60%)

Pre-requisite: Arabic, Chinese, French or Spanish. A testing session will be available upon arrival.

Students will be required to attend a testing session upon arrival to confirm eligibility.

This module is designed for final-year students of Modern Languages and Cultures. The students will be exposed to a variety of literary texts with a political content that addresses the dynamics of relationship between the self and the other. This relationship is multifaceted and complex, particularly in the context of colonial and post-colonial societies. To this end, drawing on important texts and events, the course examines imperialist narratives and their consequences for the contemporary world.

Gender Matters: Femininities, Masculinities and Trans-Cultural Practice

Module Code: 6LANS004W

Level 6

Semester 2

Location: Regent

UK Credit Value: 20

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10

Across the globe, gender is a key principle of cultural practice and social organisation, defining boundaries of inclusion and exclusion in domestic and public life. Gender is fundamental to ideas about order and stability, power and morality. Yet the kinds of behaviour and beliefs associated with ideas about femininity and masculinity shift across time and place, mediated by historical and discursive formations of colonialism, modernity, post-colonialism and globalism, and by transcultural flows of information and image across national and regional boundaries. This module examines shifting cultural constructions of gender through analysis of narrative, film and ethnographic evidence, referring to China and East Asia, Europe and Latin America.

Modern Languages and Cultures: Translation

Introduction to Translation 2

Module Code: 4TRSL002W

Level 4

Semester 2

Location: Regent

UK Credit Value: 20

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10*

Please note that this module is for French or Spanish speakers only.

This module builds on and develops the practical and conceptual foundations of the translation process introduced in the pre-requisite Introduction to Translation 1 module. In addition to weekly translation classes that focus on real-world texts of a gradually more complex but still mostly factual and explicit nature, students will be introduced to further theoretical concepts from translation studies as a means of identifying, analysing and resolving translation issues in a practical way. Additionally, students will be introduced to specialised translation memory and machine translation software packages that will equip them to benefit from further translation-specific IT training in subsequent modules.

Assessment: Coursework (25%), Presentation (25%), Examination - open book (50%), Coursework (50%), Presentation (50%)

*All transcripts are issued in UK credits.

Building Translation Competence 2

Level 5

Semester 2

Location: Regent

UK Credit Value: 20

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10*

Please note that this module is for French or Spanish speakers only.

This module further develops students' practical and conceptual translation competences. In addition to weekly translation classes that focus on increasingly complex real-world texts of a linguistically and thematically sophisticated nature, you will deepen your understanding of the theoretical and wider social dimensions of translation competence. Additionally, you will receive specialised training in the use of SDL Trados Studio, the current market leader in translation memory software.

Assessment: Coursework (25%), Coursework (25%), Examination - open book (50%), Coursework (50%), Coursework (50%)

*All transcripts are issued in UK credits.

Towards Professional Translation 2

Level 6

Semester 2

Location: Regent

UK Credit Value: 20

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10*

Please note that this module is for French or Spanish speakers only.

This module prepares students for translation in a professional context. In addition to weekly translation classes that focus on rhetorically and conceptually complex real-world texts of a specialised nature, you will explore the theoretical dimensions of translation as a cultural, political and commercial practice. Additionally, you will receive advanced training in the use of SDL MultiTerm.

Assessment: Coursework (25%), Coursework (25%), Examination - open book (50%)

Level 4

Semester 2

Location: Regent

UK Credit Value: 20

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10

This module is a Faculty elective.

This module will explore immigrant lives and their contexts in London. Starting with a historical overview and an introduction to theories of integration, assimilation and settlement, the module will examine current and past processes of inclusion and exclusion in different spheres of society, including politics, the (regular and irregular) labour market, the education system and the criminal justice system. It will also look at linguistic, literary and artistic cultural production.

Assessment: Portfolio (100%)

Globalisation: Politics, Law and the Arts

Module Code: 5SOCL010W

Level 5

Semester 2

Location: Regent

UK Credit Value: 20

Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 /
ECTS credits 10

This module is a Faculty elective.

This module explores the impact of globalisation on the arts, including music, literature, visual culture and museums. It will look at the interdependence of economic, social and artistic practices and consider the challenges that globalisation poses to local and indigenous arts, as well ways in which the arts have contributed to the processes of globalisation. It will also examine the legal contexts of ownership of works of art, intellectual property and 'sampling', and the digital futures of the arts.

Assessment: Portfolio (100%)

*All transcripts are issued in UK credits.
