Narratives are critical for understanding the world in which we live. This module focuses on how we can use narrative to achieve the impact that will make a difference to a range of professional and organisational settings. The module encourages students to develop an interdisciplinary project which showcases how narrative (and the careful construction of stories) helps to convey meaning around a given topic. Collaborating with your fellow students you will research, explore and experiment with possibilities for developing narratives that communicate that strategic objectives of a topic. You will develop your narrative through a range of perspectives (including visual, textual or spoken presentation). This module allows you to apply narrative (and story-telling) to a range of different contexts.

</table>
This module will demonstrate how utilising the transformative and empowering tools of positive psychology can enhance professional well-being and contribute to personal and professional success. The identification and assessment of strengths, perceived as the foundation for personal development and performance management will be explored, as well as a successful alignment of strengths with personal goals and their attainment. This will be complemented by an investigation of happiness (or positive well-being) in all areas of life. Theoretical perspectives on ‘flow’ and ‘engagement’ will also be examined and techniques of coaching psychology for enhancing positivity will be practice. This module is ideal for those students who wants to develop positive strategies of resilience, innovation and creativity to achieve success. Students will engage with different perspectives of positive organisational behaviour, especially as they relate to developing strategies for success within a workplace environment.

Assessment: In-Class Test (25%), Individual Reflective Report (75%)

Commercial Skills

Module Code: 6FAMN006W
Level: 6
Semester: 2
Location: Harrow
UK Credit Value: 20
Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 / ECTS credits 10*

This module has been provided to give the student insight into the commercial aspects of retailing from “start-up” strategy through planning and to trading. At the core of this module is the business game. This is an interactive simulation that looks at the risks and opportunities attached to business operations. It is a team exercise and each team must make a number of decisions concerning the set-up, management and eventual profitability of “their company”. These decisions will be effected by the P.E.S.T.L.E. factors. These factors may change whilst the game is running. The final result of the game is relatively unimportant to the learning from the module, the essential point of running the game is to allow the student to begin to make the link between their individual input to the team, the team decisions and the impact on their “business”. So far as possible the game has been designed to replicate the real business and trading environment of a retail unit and to include the factors and decisions that have to be made on a daily basis when trading a product in the retail environment. In order to support the business game lectures and activities will examine the key skills associated with the making of commercial decisions

London Studies

Modern Art in London

Module Code: 4FIAR007X  Level 4  Semester 2  UK Credit Value: 20  Equivalent Credit Value: US Credits 4 / ECTS credits 10*
Location: Marylebone

Dis-requisite: This module cannot be taken with 4ELIT010X Art and Society.

Modern Art in London offers a unique opportunity to explore London through the art displayed in museums and galleries across the capital. Weekly gallery visits and lectures explore a Modern Art historical survey starting from the late 1800’s and continuing up to the contemporary international art scene experience. Each week students will visit a different London Gallery and spend time working in the gallery both independently and with the module tutors. The note-taking and discussions that take place in the galleries are documented as part of the weekly journal style assessment. Historical and contextual lectures, reading specific seminars and discussion groups look to support and engage a range of student backgrounds from the art history novice to the seasoned connoisseur.

Television in London

Module Code: 4TVPR007X  Level 4  Semester 2

This is a London Studies module
Working in one large and several small groups students devise and produce a factual pro-gramme realised in a multicamera studio. Studio based multicamera television show. Students work in a large group to produce one 25 minute live magazine programme. Through practice in the studio students learn the pro-cedures and protocols necessary for shooting within a large crew, an “as live” TV studio show. Students learn how to schedule, source talent, produce a running order, design and build a simple set and work collectively towards the recording of a live show in a proscribed amount of ‘on-air’ time. There is an emphasis on collective responsibility and problem solving. Students write a per-sonal log plus a reflective and a critical analysis of the production process and their finished programme.
