

Vice Chancellor's Scholarship 2022/23

Application deadline:

Friday July 8th July at 5pm

Please return your completed application form including your A Level (or most recent school) transcripts as pdf attachments to scholarships@westminster.ac.uk.

You can only submit ONE email, including your application and all relevant documents. The email header should include your 8-digit Westminster Reference number and the full name of the scholarship you are applying for. You will not be able to amend your application once we have received it. You need to have a conditional/unconditional offer in place before you can apply for a scholarship.

Selection process:

Please remember that scholarships are limited. Meeting the eligibility criteria does not guarantee that you will receive an award.

All eligible applications will be considered by an awarding panel. The panel members understand that applicants will have a broad range of differing skills, attributes and experiences, so they will give equal consideration to the applicant's academic record, personal circumstances and their answers to the questions posed in the application form.

All applicants will be informed of the outcome of their application within 3 weeks after the deadline.

Thank you for applying

Vice Chancellor's Scholarship 2022/23

INFORMATION

This scholarship supports students from a Black and Mixed Black background during their higher education at the University of Westminster. We have other scholarships available for those who do not meet these criteria. The total value of the scholarship is £15,000 which is awarded for a maximum of three years. Students will receive £5,000 in each eligible year of study, subject to progression to the next year of their course and completion of the yearly career development session. The scholarship is paid into your nominated bank account in October (£2500) and February (£2500) each year or towards your tuition fees paid directly to the University in November of each academic year. Students will not receive the yearly allowance if they are on a repeat year or a placement/sandwich year.

ELIGIBILITY

Students must fulfil all criteria below:

- Be a Home student for fee purposes and have an offer for a full-time undergraduate course at the University of Westminster starting in September 2022
- Have a household income of less than £25,000 per annum. Applicants must have applied for the maximum student support available from the Student Loans Company (SLC). This includes applying for finance based on your household income and given consent to share information with the University in order that their declared household income can be verified.*
- Be from a Black or Mixed Black background
- Show development potential in your supporting statement
- The following categories of students are not eligible:
 - a. students who already have a Bachelor's or Master's degree
 - b. part-time students
 - c. students directly continuing from a University of Westminster Foundation degree

During each year of the scholarship you will be required to complete at least one career development session, details will be provided after enrolment.

* For 2022 entry, your income assessment, carried out by the Student Loans Company (SLC), must be finalised by 31 December 2022, with all required evidence submitted to SLC by the 31st July 2022. This is so that the University can confirm you are eligible to receive any scholarship you have been provisionally awarded.
