Changes to your course

- Your Student visa is issued to study your specific course at the University of Westminster
- Possible to add work placement or study abroad*
- Transfer to another course at the University of Westminster limited by visa & university rules
- Transfer to another university not permitted
- Changes not permitted require new visa (outside UK)
- Interrupting studies or withdrawal from course = CAS withdrawal and visa cancellation
- If considering a transfer, interruption or withdrawal from studies - Seek advice from tutors and Student Advice early!

The screenshot shows the University of Westminster website with the 'VISAS AND ADVICE' section highlighted in the navigation bar. The left sidebar contains a list of links: 'VISAS AND ADVICE', 'WHAT TO BRING', 'VISAS', 'STUDENT VISA', 'CHANGES TO YOUR COURSE: TRANSFERRING, INTERRUPTING, AND DEFERRING', 'REPEATING PART OF YOUR COURSE WITH A STUDENT VISA', and 'STUDENT VISA ELIGIBILITY AND REQUIREMENTS'. The main content area on the right provides information for students with a Student Visa, advising them to read the 'Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS)' and explaining that the visa is based on the CAS information. It also mentions that changes to the course may affect the visa and advises students to speak to 'Student Advice' for more details.

Working in the UK
during and after your studies

Working with a Student visa

Can I work in the UK?

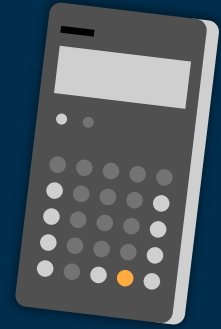

Yes, students studying a full-time degree course with a Student visa are allowed to work.

- It helps with your living expenses
- It allows you to gain valuable work experience, meet new people and network

However, there are some restrictions on the number of hours and type of jobs that you can do.

How many hours can I work?

- Most students can work 20 hours per week during term-time (check your visa)
- Working above 20 hours per week is permitted:
 - during official vacation periods (Christmas break and spring break)
 - Master's degree students do not have a summer break
 - PhD students need to request holidays from the Graduate School
 - Before the course starts and after it ends as recorded on your CAS, unless your course is extended due to referrals/deferrals

Jobs which are not permitted

You can do most kinds of work, but you must not:

- be self-employed
- engage in a business activity
- take a permanent full-time job
- be employed as a professional sports person or sports coach
- be employed as an entertainer

Jobs which are not permitted

A permanent job is one where there is no end date in your contract (not fixed-term).

Self-employment means that you are your own boss, a freelancer/contractor; activities include selling goods and services for profit.

Business activity examples: running a business as a sole trader or a partnership, holding 10% or more shares in a company where you work; holding a statutory role such as a director.

Entertainer: includes paid work as an actor, musician, dancer or other performer; there is an exception for dance, drama and music students doing work placements.

Remember your visa work conditions

Breaching your visa conditions can have serious consequences, including your Student visa being cancelled.

It's your responsibility to know and obey these conditions.

Practical information

- Your employer will ask you for a share code to check if you can work in the UK: www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work
- You may be asked for a letter confirming your term dates: www.westminster.ac.uk/official-letter-requests
- You will need to apply for a National Insurance number
 - You can apply before or after starting work
 - It can take around 4 weeks to get it
 - You apply online: www.gov.uk/apply-national-insurance-number

Working after your course ends

Student visa: 'post study' period

- You can work over 20h/week once you have completed your academic work, and your CAS end date has passed
- This is usually during the last 4 months of your visa (or last 2 months, for courses shorter than 1 year)
- You can't be self-employed or work in a permanent full-time role (Student visa restrictions still apply)

What if you'd like to stay in the UK longer?

What types of visas are there?

- Graduate Route
- Skilled Worker
- Youth Mobility
- Global Talent
- Temporary Worker
- Innovator Founder

..and more - see UKCISA.org.uk
