

LAW

London is a global hub for law and is home to many of the largest law firms in the world. Westminster Law School is located in the heart of London's West End with easy access to courts, key legal employers and legal institutions. A leading legal education institution offering an extremely wide range of practically oriented courses, we are also a major provider of courses for the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives. Our M-Law degree is the only course of its kind in London and the South East and one of only six in the country.

Teaching and learning

We have an international reputation for research into the legal profession and legal practice, international law and human rights, and commercial and financial law. Our courses are developed with this research in mind to offer you the very latest in academic and practical learning. Our teaching and learning methods include lectures, seminar-based discussions, class presentations, invited guest speakers and practical group exercises.

Employability

We have an extremely strong focus on employment, and on supporting you to develop your career. From the outset we concentrate on professional and transferable skills, employability, and personal development planning. As a result, over 92 per cent of our graduates go on to employment or further study within six months of graduating with us. You'll also be given a host of opportunities to boost your career and develop your professional and transferable skills such as legal skills workshops, networking sessions, work placements, mooting and more.

Our graduates have gone on to become barristers and advocates, solicitors, clerks and officers of court, legal executives, and paralegals, and we have an excellent record in careers at the Bar. A law degree is also seen as a valuable asset by a variety of employers, legal and non-legal, and our graduates pursue careers in accountancy, the civil service, education, government and other private and public enterprises.
